STRENGTH AGAINST OPPOSITION

In appointing Jeremiah to stand up to the people and announce the truth, God at the same time promised him the strength to do the job. "They will fight against you but not prevail over you, for I am with you" (Jeremiah 1:19).

Jesus also faced opposition, right from the start. In his home town of Nazareth the people couldn't accept the idea that someone from among their own could be God's messenger. "[F]illed with fury," they expelled Jesus from town and would have hurled him over the edge of the hill. "But Jesus passed through the midst of them and went away" (Luke 4:28, 30).

Although the true prophet has strength from God, Saint Paul says there's something even more important than suffering death for the sake of God's word. "[I]f I hand my body over so that I may boast, but have not love, I gain nothing" (1 Corinthians 13:3).

2010 Annual Diocesan Appeal: Commitment Weekend is February 6 & 7. The Annual Diocesan Appeal helps to fund diocesan ministries that assist our parish in providing pastoral care to our people. For example; every parish must provide for religious instruction through weekly religious education classes and in some cases, through a parish school. The office of Catholic Education Ministries serves as a resource for materials, training for instructors and general information. Please prayerfully consider how you will respond as a member of the Body of Christ and as a faithful steward of the gifts that God has given to you. Celebrate our continuing commitment to the Appeal by responding to the materials you will receive in the mail by making a financial pledge of support.
