SHARE THE BURDEN

“Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened, and I will give you rest” (Matthew 11:28). These words of our Savior seem to be in stark contrast to the previous chapter from the same Gospel, when we were told that if we do not take up our crosses, we are not worthy of Christ. Connecting these two messages might help us on our faith journeys. Being a follower of Christ surely means that we must embrace the cross, in its mystery of both suffering and triumph. This is something that we need not do alone, for the burden is often too heavy for us to carry by ourselves. Who, then, do we turn to? We can turn to the Body of Christ—the community of disciples gathered for worship. When we find the burden too heavy, let us remember that we can share that burden with our Christian sisters and brothers, who can help bring us rest.

An update on the Planning Process: The area planning group had its final meeting on June 14, 2011. The group reached consensus on three proposals to submit to Bishop Kinney. The committee will present them to him sometime in August or September. There are no immediate pastoral staffing concerns for the five involved parishes, so we do not know when there will be a decision regarding the three proposals. I want to extend a special thank you to the lay representatives from our parish who so willingly gave of their time to make this process successful.
